

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY, Nov. 11, 1884.

Since last writing the local trade has revived somewhat. Retailers make favorable reports and auctioneers have disposed of a large amount of goods at fair prices. Yesterday a large credit sale of imported goods was commenced by Mr. E. P. Adams, to be continued to-day.

The latest advices from the Coast show an improvement in the price of sugar, the details of which will be found Messrs. Williams, Dimond & Co.'s circular.

Intense excitement prevailed in this city on Tuesday last, on the occasion of the Presidential election, the tone being decidedly Republican.

The arrivals for the week comprise the Alden Besse from Portland, the Abbe Carver and Centaur from Hongkong, the S. S. Mariposa and the Eva from San Francisco.

The departures were the S. S. Bordeaux, bktn W. H. Dimond for San Francisco, Alden Besse for Hongkong, Ophelia, Pacific Slope and Varuna for Portland, Or., and H. I. G. M. Prinz Adalbert for Callao.

The following is a copy of Messrs. Williams Dimond and Co's circular per Mariposa:—

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1, 1884.

Dear Sir,—Our last circular was dated Oct 15th, per Alameda.

SUGAR.—As intimated in our last report, the opinions of the trade that M. Licht's estimates of the beet crop were too large, have been realized, his October estimate having reduced his previous figures 45,000 tons, causing a decided change for the better in the markets of the world. In London, beet has advanced to 12s 6d, and in New York centrifugal 9¢ per cent, polarization to 5½¢, at which price holders are very firm.

The stock in all hands in the United States is now 111,500 tons under the highest point of the year. The consumption is large, being 18 per cent higher than the previous year, and judging by the smaller exports from Brazil and Philippines now afloat, the receipts for the balance of this year will prove less than last year, and probably the present excess of stock will gradually disappear.

RICE.—On arrival of the steamship Mariposa rice was freely offered @ 4½¢ cash, and almost immediately at 4½¢ 60 days. This latter quotation is the ruling rate to day. Carolina news to date is a large crop extra fine quality. This may cause low prices here and East for some time to come.

FLOUR—G G extra family, $4 35 f.o.b. El Dorado, $3 10 f.o.b.

BRAN—$18 f.o.b.

BARLEY—No 1 feed, $1 per ctn f.o.b.

GROUND BARLEY—$20 50 per ton f.o.b.

OATS—Fair, $1 20; medium, $1 40; choice, $1 60

HAY—Large bales; wheat or oat, $15 to $17 f.o.b.; compressed, $15 f.o.b.

LIME—$1 50 per bbl.

CHARTERS.—Since our last advices, rates have declined materially, last charter being a handy iron vessel at 35s, Cork, U. K. English cargo advice continue of a dull and declining nature, and shippers decline making new engagements for the present. Wooden tonnage is held at 30s direct.

EXCHANGE.—London, 60 days sight, 4 80; New York, sight, ¼ per ct.

We remain, dear sir,
Yours, faithfully,
WILLIAMS, DIMOND & CO.
